CHAPTERS OF OHIO AND PENNSYLVANIA*

OCTOBER 17-19, 2014
CHAUTAUQUA SUITES
MAYVILLE, NY

Save the date! Don't miss out on what promises to be a super special Fall 2014 Audubon Council Meeting!

Special events, speakers and visits to centers of birding are planned starting on Friday October 17 through Sunday October 19. This weekend will be packed with choices including visits to the Roger Tory Peterson Institute, Buffalo Audubon Center at Beaver Meadow, other special birding sites like Celoron and Dunkirk, and opportunities to visit Niagara Falls and Chautauqua – listed as the best small town to visit in America by Smithsonian.

ALL DAY BIRDING, FRIDAY October 17th Join us in Buffalo for a Friday birding extravaganza. Starting at Niagara Falls, then on to the Niagara River Corridor, a Global IBA, continuing South and West along Lake Erie Shore. To enjoy it all plan to arrive Thursday night or early Friday in Buffalo.

Friday night: On to Chautauqua Suites where the dinner speaker will be Jim Berry, retired President of the Roger Tory Peterson Institute.

SATURDAY October 18th An action filled day including new information on Audubon's climate campaign, workshops, Chapter Roundtable and site visits to the Jamestown Audubon Center, Roger Tory Peterson center and other possible birding hotspots such as Celoron at Lake Chautauqua or Dunkirk Harbor. In the evening we will be treated to a talk with eminent Smithsonian ornithologist John Rappole.

SUNDAY October 19th will feature discussions on invasive species and land management by Chapters and Audubon New York staff, our legislative advocacy successes and new and updated resolutions, plus highlights of on Audubon's conservation efforts across the state. Sunday afternoon trips and activities will be added based on your input from the website (please let us know today).

Hope to see you all for this exciting meeting in a special part of New York!!

Chautauqua, NY Listed by Smithsonian as the best small town in America to visit

(Shaw Nielsen)

Chautauqua, on a long, skinny lake in the southwestern corner of New York State, is the sort of bucolic place where folks like to go for slow-lane vacations, but there's much more to it than ice-cream cones and ferry rides. Something important happened here in 1874 that changed the way Americans think about leisure time—the first Chautauqua Assembly. Originally a training ground for Methodist Sunday school teachers, it went on to demonstrate the role of learning in the perpetuation of democracy. It was, President Theodore Roosevelt said, "the most American thing in America."

Please call the Chautauqua Suites for your room reservations. Make sure you mention you want The Audubon Group Room Rate for $89.99 at (716) 269-7829 By September 26th.
